

1 [Black History Month - February]

2
3 Resolution recognizing every February as Black History Month in the City and County
4 of San Francisco.
5

6 WHEREAS, African American scholar and historian Dr. Carter G. Woodson founded 7 the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, later renamed to the Association for 8 the Study of Afro-American Life and History, which has historically worked to preserve, 9 sustain, and commemorate African American history and culture; and

10 WHEREAS, On February 12, 1926, Dr. Woodson designated the second week of 11 February, chosen to coincide with the birthdays of the prominent abolitionist Frederick 12 Douglass and President Abraham Lincoln, as Black History Week, to honor the contributions 13 made to our country and the world by African Americans; and

14 WHEREAS, Black History Month was first proposed by Black educators and the Black 15 United Students at Kent State University in February 1969 and the first celebration of Black 16 History Month took place at Kent State one year later in 1970; and

17 WHEREAS, Six years later in 1976, Black History Month was lengthened across the 18 country in educational institutions, centers of Black culture and community centers, and 19 recognized by President Gerald Ford during the celebration of the United States Bicentennial; 20 and

21 WHEREAS, The month of February is also significant for the birthdays of great African 22 American pioneers and institutions, including William Edward Burghardt (W.E.B.) Du Bois, 23 Langston Hughes, Eubie Black, Rosa Parks, Alice Walker, Leontyne Price, Toni Morrison, the 24 National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and the first Pan 25 African Congress; and

1           WHEREAS, February is now nationally recognized as Black History Month throughout 2 the United States and various parts of the world; and

3           WHEREAS, During Black History Month and throughout the year, the City and County
4 of San Francisco reflects on more than 400 years of Black history, heritage, struggles, and 5 contributions of Black Americans; now, therefore, be it

6           RESOLVED, That the City and County of San Francisco recognizes February as Black
7 History Month and commits to reparations and policies that improve the lives of Black people 8 in the City.