Biography San Francisco Juvenile Probation Commissioner Dirk J. Beijen

Commissioner Beijen is a native San Franciscan, a veteran, a parent, a grandparent, and a retired San Francisco Police lieutenant. During a police career of more than 33 years, he worked in a variety of assignments -- most recently in the Investigations Bureau's Juvenile Section. In that capacity, he served as the officer-in-charge of the Internet Crimes Against Children Unit, as the officer-in-charge of the Youth Guidance Center Liaison, and as the liaison officer with the Community Assessment and Referral Center. Concurrent with those duties, he was in charge of the Police Department's Hostage/Crisis Negotiation Teams. He received numerous medals, awards, and commendations, and, more significantly, earned the respect of his fellow officers and the community members he served. Since the fall of 2000, he has been a teacher and mentor for students at the Life Learning Academy, a charter high school that serves "at risk" youth in San Francisco. He also serves our city's youth as a member of the San Francisco Police Activities League's Board of Directors.

It is the philosophy of this commissioner to support and encourage the Juvenile Probation Department in its efforts to deserve the public's and the youthful offender's trust by using effective, compassionate, and principle based supervision, community and educational resources, and, when appropriate, alternatives to detention that promote rehabilitation and integrate the rules of balanced and restorative justice.

Commissioner Beijen graduated at the top of his class from the San Francisco Police Academy and from the Federal Bureau of Investigation National Academy. He has an AA degree (Liberal Studies) from City College of San Francisco, a BA (major: Psychology, minor: Sociology) from San Francisco State University, a Certificate (Criminal Justice Education) from the University of Virginia, a MPA (Public Administration) from Golden Gate University, a Graduate Certificate (Applied Psychology) from Golden Gate University, and two teaching credentials.
