As a District 7 resident and member of Parkside Heritage, I am writing to express my strong support for Resolution 210087 initiating landmark designation for the Trocadero Clubhouse in Stern Grove.

The Trocadero is the earliest building in the Parkside District and one of the last surviving nineteenth-century structures in southwestern San Francisco.

San Francisco's southwest quadrant is historically and architecturally rich, but underrepresented in terms of designated landmarks.

I request that the Board of Supervisors vote in favor of the resolution initiating landmark designation for the Trocadero.

Thank you,

The Trocadero is the earliest building in the Parkside District and one of the last surviving nineteenth-century structures in southwestern San Francisco. Further, the Trocadero was the site of key events in San Francisco history including organizing meetings to promote women's suffrage. Also, the Trocadero is integral to the landscaping and plan of Stern Grove, a public park where the annual series of free concerts has been held since 1932. The Trocadero is recognized by the City of San Francisco as locally significant for the purposes of the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA).

For all of these reasons, I am requesting that the Land Use and Transportation Committee and the full Board of Supervisors vote in favor of the resolution initiating landmark designation for the Trocadero.

As a longtime resident of the Sunset and a member of SPEAK and Parkside Heritage, I am writing to voice my strong support for the Landmark Designation of the Trocadero Inn in Sigmund Stern Grove.

There are many reasons for my request: Sigmund Stern Grove has a long and colorful history as presented by Lorri Ungaretti in Stories in the Sand, San Francisco's Sunset District, 1847-1964 and I do not need to repeat all. However, the story starts with the first owners, the George Green Family, and their fight to assert their ownership. They farmed in the gully and built a road house around 1892 which is still in existence and is the oldest building in the Sunset. They also attracted many visitors with a deer park, boating pavilion, a beer garden, and even a trout farm.

George Green closed the Inn in 1916 and made it his home. After some attempts to buy the property and develop the area, Green sold twelve acres in 1931 to Rosalie Stern for a city park to be named in honor of her late husband, Sigmund. She hired architects Bernhard Maybeck and William Gladstone Merchant to restore the Trocadero inn and landscape the property as a park.

Free summer concerts started in 1938 and continue to the current time. In 2005 Sigmund Stern Grove was renovated by landscape architect Lawrence Halprin, with large boulders for the seating of the concert audience.

For these reasons, I am requesting that the Land Use and Transportation Committee and the full Board of Supervisors vote in favor of the resolution initiating landmark designation for the Trocadero.

Dear Members of the Board of Supervisors:

As a San Francisco resident and president of the Victorian Alliance of San Francisco (VASF), I am writing to express our organization's strong support for Resolution 210087 initiating landmark designation for the Trocadero Clubhouse in Stern Grove. Founded in 1973, the VASF is the oldest all-volunteer non-profit advocacy organization supporting historic preservation in San Francisco. Our 200+ strong membership is particularly enthusiastic about supporting this 1892 Victorian building as a city landmark.

The Trocadero is the earliest building in the Parkside District and one of the last surviving nineteenth-century structures in southwestern San Francisco. Further, the Trocadero was the site of key events in San Francisco history including organizing meetings to promote women's suffrage. Supervisors:

Please support the resolution for the Trocadero Clubhouse for Landmark Designation, BOS file 210087. This resolution initiates the long overdue official recognition and protection of an important building in the Parkside District's history. I have been a resident of the Parkside for 40 years and just assumed that this Victorian roadhouse was already protected! Let us not waste another minute that delays moving forward to honor and preserve an important part of the story of the city's Outside Lands.

Sincerely,
Nancy Wuerfel
