15 Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco:

17 Section 1. Purpose and Findings.

18 (a) The City and County of San Francisco is facing an unprecedented public health
19 and economic crisis due to the COVID-19 pandemic. On February 25, 2020, the Mayor 20 declared a state of emergency due to COVID-19 and the Board of Supervisors concurred in 21 the emergency. On March 13, 2020, the Mayor adopted the first of a series of emergency 22 orders to prevent the eviction of tenants who were unable to pay certain months' rent due to 23 the financial impacts of COVID-19. The City later adopted an ordinance (Ordinance No. 93-24 20) to protect tenants from being evicted due to an inability to pay rent, if the tenant could not 25 pay due to the financial impacts of COVID-19 and the missed rent payments originally came

1 due between March 16, 2020, and September 30, 2020. The City also created a COVID-19
2 Rent Resolution and Relief Fund (Ordinance No. 227-20) to provide support to eligible
3 landlords whose tenants are unable to pay rent due to the financial impacts of the COVID-19 4 pandemic.

5 (b) At the state level, the Legislature adopted the Tenant, Homeowner, and Small 6 Landlord Relief and Stabilization Act of 2020 (hereafter, "SB 91"), which enacted additional 7 eviction protections for tenants who were unable to pay their rent due to COVID-19. But SB
8 91 applies only to rent payments that originally came due between March 1, 2020 and June 9 30, 2021, inclusive, and does not protect tenants from being evicted due to rent payments that 10 originally came due on or after July 1, 2021.

11 (c) Regardless of whether the Legislature extends SB 91, there is an ongoing 12 emergency in San Francisco. The pandemic appears to be slowly coming under control, but 13 the end is not in sight, and the threat of mass evictions starting July 1, 2021 is a looming crisis
14 for tenants who could be directly affected, as well as for the City as a whole. The City has a 15 shortage of affordable rental housing, a significant percentage of its households are renters at 16 risk of permanent displacement should they be forced to leave their current homes, and many 17 potentially impacted renters are also essential workers who will be needed immediately if the 18 pandemic takes a turn for the worse. The Board of Supervisors is considering an emergency 19 ordinance to suspend evictions due to the non-payment of rent that originally comes due on or 20 after July 1, 2021 (File No. 210602), but the emergency ordinance would last only 60 days
21 unless renewed. The threat of mass evictions starting in July 2021 (or if applicable, 60 days 22 after the adoption of the emergency ordinance) is a looming crisis for tenants who could be 23 directly affected, as well as for the City as a whole. State and federal relief programs have 24 been delayed and only began processing San Francisco applications in May 2021, and these 25 funding delays have in turn impacted the City's efforts to administer relief to landlords and

1 tenants. See, e.g., Los Angeles Times, “Cash to help California renters goes unspent with 2 eviction protections expiring soon” (May 20, 2021), available at 3 <https://www.latimes.com/california/story/2021-05-20/california-renters-unspent-financial-> 4 assistance-eviction-protections-expiring); and 48 Hills, “Not one dollar of state rent-relief
5 money has arrived in SF” (May 13, 2021, available at <https://48hills.org/2021/05/not-one->
6 dollar-of-state-rent-relief-money-has-arrived-in-sf/). A short-term extension of SB 91’s 7 evictions protections through the end of the calendar year is necessary to help tenants during 8 this transitional phase.

9 (d) The Board of Supervisors finds it is in the public interest to prevent tenant
10 displacement in San Francisco due to COVID-19 to the maximum extent permitted by law.
11 Pursuant to the City’s authority to regulate evictions, and consistent with SB 91, this ordinance
12 applies to rent payments that originally came due between July 1, 2021 and December 31, 13 2021, inclusive. Nothing in this ordinance shall affect or impair the application of any other 14 City law or SB 91 with respect to rent payments that originally came due before July 1, 2021.

16 Section 2. The Administrative Code is hereby amended by revising Section 37.9, to 17 read as follows:

18 SEC. 37.9. EVICTIONS.

19 Notwithstanding Section 37.3, this Section 37.9 shall apply as of August 24, 1980, to all 20 landlords and tenants of rental units as defined in Section 37.2(r).

- 21 (a) A landlord shall not endeavor to recover possession of a rental unit unless:
- 22 (1) The tenant:
- 23 (A) Has failed to pay the rent to which the landlord is lawfully entitled
- 24 under the oral or written agreement between the tenant and landlord:

25 * * * *

1 (B) Habitually pays the rent late; or

2 (C) Gives checks which are frequently returned because there are 3 insufficient funds in the checking account;

4 (D) Provided, however, that subsection (a)(1) shall not apply with 5 respect to rent payments that initially became due during the time period when paragraph 2 of 6 the Governor's Executive Order No. N-28-20 (as said time period may be extended by the 7 Governor from time to time) was in effect, and where the tenant's failure to pay (i) arose out of 8 a substantial decrease in household income (including, but not limited to, a substantial 9 decrease in household income caused by layoffs or a reduction in the number of 10 compensable hours of work, or substantial out-of-pocket expenses); (ii) that was caused by 11 the COVID-19 pandemic, or by any local, state, or federal government response to COVID-19;
12 and (iii) is documented. The types of documentation that a tenant may use to show an inability 13 to pay due to COVID-19 may include, without limitation, bank statements, pay stubs, 14 employment termination notices, proof of unemployment insurance claim filings, sworn 15 affidavits, and completed forms prepared by the Rent Board. A tenant shall have the option, 16 but shall not be required, to use third-party documentation such as a letter from an employer
17 to show an inability to pay. The provisions of this subsection (a)(1)(D), being necessary for 18 the welfare of the City and County of San Francisco and its residents, shall be liberally
19 construed to effectuate its purpose, which is to protect tenants from being evicted for missing 20 rent payments due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Nothing in this subsection (a)(1)(D) shall 21 relieve a tenant of the obligation to pay rent, nor restrict a landlord's ability to recover rent due; 22 ~~or~~

23 (E) Provided, further, that subsection (a)(1) also shall not apply with respect to 24 rent payments that initially became due between July 1, 2021 and December 31, 2021, inclusive, if the 25 tenant has paid the landlord an amount equal to at least 25% of all the rental payments that have come

1 due between July 1, 2021 and December 31, 2021, and if the tenant can show they are unable to pay
2 the remaining rent due to the financial impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic as set forth in subsection
3 (a)(1)(D). This subsection (a)(1)(E) shall be interpreted and applied in the same manner as subsection
4 (a)(1)(D). Nothing in either subsection shall relieve a tenant of the obligation to pay rent, nor restrict 5 a landlord's ability to recover rent due; or

6 (2) The tenant has violated a lawful obligation or covenant of tenancy other than 7 the obligation to surrender possession upon proper notice or other than an obligation to pay a
8 charge prohibited by Police Code Section 919.1, the violation was substantial, and the tenant 9 fails to cure such violation after having received written notice thereof from the landlord.

10 * * * *

11 (E) Notwithstanding any lease provision to the contrary, a landlord may 12 not impose late fees, penalties, interest, liquidated damages, or similar charges due to a 13 tenant's non-payment of rent, if the tenant can demonstrate that it missed the rent payment
14 due to the COVID-19 pandemic as set forth in subsection (a)(1)(D) and/or (a)(1)(E). A 15 landlord may not recover possession of the unit due to a tenant's failure to pay late such 16 charges when subsection (a)(1)(D) and/or (a)(1)(E) applies. The foregoing sentence shall not 17 enlarge or diminish a landlord's rights with respect to such charges when subsection (a)(1)(D) and/or (a)(1)(E) does not apply; or

18 * * * *

21 Section 3. Severability. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or word 22 of this ordinance, or any application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held to be 23 invalid or unconstitutional by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, such decision 24 shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions or applications of the ordinance. The 25 Board of Supervisors hereby declares that it would have passed this ordinance and each and

1 every section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, and word not declared invalid or 2 unconstitutional without regard to whether any other portion of this ordinance or application 3 thereof would be subsequently declared invalid or unconstitutional.

5 Section 4. Effective Date. This ordinance shall become effective 30 days after 6 enactment. Enactment occurs when the Mayor signs the ordinance, the Mayor returns the 7 ordinance unsigned or does not sign the ordinance within ten days of receiving it, or the Board
8 of Supervisors overrides the Mayor’s veto of the ordinance.

9
10 Section 5. Scope of Ordinance. In enacting this ordinance, the Board of Supervisors 11 intends to amend only those words, phrases, paragraphs, subsections, sections, articles, 12 numbers, punctuation marks, charts, diagrams, or any other constituent parts of the Municipal 13 Code that are explicitly shown in this ordinance as additions, deletions, Board amendment 14 additions, and Board amendment deletions in accordance with the “Note” that appears under 15 the official title of the ordinance.
