I am a resident homeowner in Hayes Valley and have lived within the Market and Octavia plan area for almost seven years. I am actively involved within the Hayes Valley community and in particular HVNA planning and transportation advocacy (see "civic activities," below). As a homeowner, I have interacted with DBI and SF Planning, which has provided additional insight into the mechanisms of our planning and permitting processes, and their impacts on our built environment.

Business and/or professional experience:

Career in software engineering, product design and entrepreneurship. Includes console, web and mobile software with very small to very large organizations, including Democratic political campaign work and independent consulting and advising.

Trustee with the Ecolint-American Foundation (2014-present) supporting the International School of Geneva.

Civic Activities:

Two-time board member at the Hayes Valley Neighborhood Association (HVNA) (2018-19), member of HVNA Transportation & Planning committee (2017-present). Contributor to Market & Octavia CAC Freeway commemoration project (2019-present). Volunteer with the Women's Community Clinic on Fillmore (2014-2015).

I am a de-facto historian with the HVNA, and have prepared and presented photographic and written histories of the neighborhood and greater Western Addition. I have also researched and published local history independently. My primary interest is illuminating urban stories through the built environment. A selection of this work is linked in the attachment.

I am an owner-resident of the condominium unit indicated above, within the Market Octavia CAC Study Area. I identify as a member of the LGBTQ+ community and live with my partner. I have lived in San Francisco for just over three years, and enjoy being an active participant in my community. I currently serve as Treasurer for our condo's HOA and after several incidents of burglary and vandalism to our building and neighboring buildings, I am constantly working to both improve the neighborhood and educate neighbors on opportunities to do the same.

Business and/or professional experience:

I have spent my full professional career at the intersection of educational equity and technology. I began my career as a high school teacher in Washington, D.C. where I worked with brilliant students and fellow faculty in an under-resourced neighborhood within DC. After several years, I moved into school technology leadership where I spent seven years creating and managing a rapidly-growing school system's technology and innovation functions, ultimately managing a $5M annual budget and a team of 20. Just over three years ago, I moved from Washington, DC to San Francisco to embark on my next professional challenge as a marketing executive at Salesforce, where I work to make institutions and their students more successful through our technology and partnerships.

Civic Activities:

Prior to moving to San Francisco, I served as an elected Advisory Neighborhood Commissioner in Washington, D.C., where I represented my single member district and also served as chairperson on our larger commission. The ANC is the official representative "voice of the neighborhood" to city agencies and the City Council on matters such as zoning variances, alcohol and regulated substance licenses, and public safety. During my time as chairperson, we brought the commission's finances and records into compliance with city ordinances, and created a community grant program to fund neighborhood events and beautification projects. I am confident that these prior activities would be quite helpful to the Market Octavia CAC, and appreciate the committee's consideration of my application.

I was born in San Francisco. I have lived in Hayes Valley for the past 2 years (Fulton/Octavia) and recently moved to 1 Polk Street. I am a gay, cis-male, Chinese-American nonprofit worker. I have been a member of the Harvey Milk LGBTQ Democratic Club since 2016. Currently, I am the Vice President of the Rose Pak Democratic Club, working to uplift the voices of the San Francisco's API communities and other marginalized groups. As a nonprofit worker, I am low-income. I have lived some of the struggles that low-income communities experience in the face of rising rents and living expenses.

Business and/or professional experience:

For the past 4 years, I've worked for Chinatown Community Development Center, a nonprofit housing developer that focuses exclusively on providing low-income housing to San Franciscans. In my current role as Asset Management Coordinator, I analyze the financials of the buildings in our portfolio, which consists of 3,000 units across 35 properties in San Francisco. I know intimately the complex systems and partnerships that allow for affordable housing to be built in our city--including HUD, TCAC, HCD, MOHCD, tax credit investors, and various subsidy programs. Through providing housing to low-income communities, I have seen first hand the financial struggles they face. Most of our residents are working class families or live on a fixed income and have been severely affected by the pandemic. I also understand the necessity of community-centered urban development. Far too often are local communities treated as an afterthought or completely ignored in the planning process.

Civic Activities:

I have worked on various political campaigns across San Francisco during every election cycle since 2016. I have canvassed in every district in San Francisco, educating voters face-to-face about the issues and candidates on the ballot. As Vice President of the Rose Pak Democratic Club, I have advocated on behalf of San Francisco's Chinese community on the issues of public safety, transportation, affordable housing, and language access.

I founded Dark Garden Corsetry in 1989. Since then, my colleagues and I have brought our special brand of inclusivity to San Francisco. Through our carefully curated products and events, we strive to cultivate a body-positive culture that is accessible to people of all ages, abilities, cultures, genders, needs and body types.

Business and/or professional experience:

I founded Dark Garden in 1989 and my retail-manufacturing business has been located in Hayes Valley since 1996.

I lead a team of 16 women in 3 states, in manufacturing, retail, marketing, and social media.

We survived not only the Dotcom bust in San Francisco and the following economic downturn, but have also managed to come out of the pandemic as a strong business with a bright future.

Civic Activities:

I am a founding member of the Hayes Valley Merchants Association. In 2019 we opened a second location in New Orleans and I now serve on the board of the Magazine Street Merchants Association.

I participated in Shared Streets in Hayes Valley, volunteering several Sunday nights in support of the local restaurants, in the interest of the neighborhood and community. My partner and I participate in neighborhood cleanup days as well.

A resident and home owner of Hayes Valley for nearly 18 years. I have lived in San Francisco since 1977, in the Mission, Castro, West Portal, and now Hayes Valley neighborhoods. I raised my biracial son in SF as a single parent. I became a PTA volunteer and later PTA officer at the school and District level, ever vigilant regarding his excellent education at SF public schools. He attended Japanese Bicultural Bilingual Program at Clarendon Elementary, Herbert Hoover Middle School, and Ruth Asawa School of the Arts High School.

Sat on committee to create Prop H, which provided City funds for Arts Programming in SF

Business and/or professional experience:

Retail buyer for Macys Corp SF for 11 years. 14 years in my own sales business based in SF, representing Japanese fiber/textile corporation, Teijin Frontier, supplying global textile production and apparel manufacturing to US/global retailers. Closed business in 2004.

Adjunct professor at San Francisco State University for 14 years, teaching textile, business planning and merchandising courses, and well as required writing courses. I authored "Fashion Designer's Textile Directory," published in 2011, 2nd edition 2018, and I achieved SFSU Masters Degree in 2011. Retiring in end of 2017, I continue writing articles, initiating special projects, and contributing to academic texts on textile fiber innovation with special emphasis on the impact of textile/apparel industries on the environment and climate change.

Civic Activities:

I participated in the community outreach to neighborhood organizations/residents and in support of the final passage of the Market/Octavia Better Neighborhood Plan before the Planning Commission and Board of Supervisors. Since then, I've been involved in the HUB planning, Better Market Street planning, as related to the M/O Plan, and supporting implementation of safe streets with alternatives to car traffic. I initiated the Octavia Street closure at Patricia's Green, while HVNA president, as well as 3 implemented Living Alley projects. I have been a member of HVNA since arriving in 2003, participating in most HVNA activities, heading the Hayes/Buchanan Task Force (part of Public Safety Committee) to address the violence at this corner and throughout the community. HVNA president for 3yrs.

Re: Appointment of Gail Baugh to Market Octavia Community Advisory Committee, Seat #5, Neighborhoods

Dear Supervisors Peskin, Mandelman and Chan,

The Hayes Valley Neighborhood Association (HVNA) wishes to express our strongest support for the appointment of Gail Baugh to Seat #5, the Neighborhoods seat, on the Market Octavia CAC.

Gail has been a neighborhood leader for many years. As former HVNA President, Gail demonstrated a rare ability to lead a diverse group of people and interests, engage and encourage positive and productive discussions among various parties, including neighbors, businesses, individuals, and other interest groups. As HVNA President, she initiated the Octavia Street closure at Patricia's Green, three Living Alley projects, as well as providing leadership on many other neighborhood projects and initiatives.

Her years of activism and leadership in community organizations have made a strong impact in Hayes Valley and beyond. Among many other successful projects, Gail participated in community meetings and supported efforts leading to the passage of the Market/Octavia Better Neighborhood Plan, and encouraged others to do so in front of the Planning Commission and Board of Supervisors. Additionally, she's been involved in HUB planning, Better Market Street planning, and supporting the implementation of Safe Streets. She's also been a leader in providing City funding for arts programming in the schools through Prop H and other initiatives.

Gail has proven leadership and a unique capacity to master all aspects of complex issues in many arenas, and communicate these to a variety of audiences in a clear way, fostering broader community engagement while simultaneously moving these varied matters forward through complicated processes. She is aware of the issues before the CAC, and we believe her participation will be instrumental to the CAC's continued effectiveness.

Gail has the full support of the Hayes Valley Neighborhood Association board for this appointment.

Sincerely,

Re: Appointment of Gail Baugh to Market Octavia Community Advisory Committee, Seat #5, Neighborhoods

Dear Supervisors Chan, Mandelman and Peskin:

Cathedral Hill Neighborhood Association (CHNA) urges you to appoint Gail Baugh to Seat #5 (Neighborhoods) on the Market Octavia CAC.

Gail is well known in District 5 for her activism as a long term leader of the Hayes Valley Neighborhood Association, and for working on local issues jointly with other District 5 neighborhoods.

As a member of the Van Ness Corridor Neighborhoods Council (VNCNC) she has broadened her impact on the larger area covered by the VNCNC from South Van Ness to Lombard Street, weighing in on major planning, transportation, arts, open space and safety issues.

As you may know from her involvement in the Market Octavia Plan, Gail has expertise specifically relating to this area as well as her participation in District and citywide neighborhood networks.
