Request Granted

From: Supervisors Brown, Yee, Peskin, Walton, Haney, and Ronen

To: District Attorney

Requesting/Inquiring: On April 6th, 2019 Jessica Nicole Alva passed away in the SF General Neuro-ICU unit after being in a coma for 4 days, as a result of an abusive domestic relationship.

The family and concerned community members are very upset with the way SFPD handled the case. Her partner was picked up on a parole violation but released soon after. SFPD did not investigate the crime scene and took the word of her partner that she attempted suicide, although there was a history of domestic violence as well as visible signs of abuse on her body. The SFBOS calls upon the SF District Attorney's office to investigate the wrongful death of Jessica Alva.
