Mayor Breed indicated that the death rate has tripled since 2008, an additional $6,000,000 has been added to the budget to address these issues, a Task Force is being formed to report on treatment and service options, safe injection sites should be focused on, and indicated she will continue to address the issue and focus on providing services to rectify the situation. Supervisor Haney then followed up with the following question: Have you explored the option to expand detox centers throughout the City? Mayor Breed indicated she continues to have conversations on the expansion of locations for detox centers and the services they provide, including the provision of housing for those who have utilized detox services.
